

Top 4 Most Incredible Polish Women:

Did you ever hear the following phrase: "Behind every great man there's a great woman" ...?

Well, that is true. In the post of today I want to talk about some Polish women that are considered the greatest Polish women of all times.

It is quite hard to talk about this Top 4, mainly because of the great number of important women that Poland has had during its history. Of course the following list is not 'official', but in my opinion this is the one.

1) Maria Skłodowska Curie

She was born in Warsaw in 1867. She was the first woman to win a Nobel Prize and the only person to win in multiple sciences! She won 2 Nobel prizes, one in Physics and one in Chemistry respectively.

2) Irena Sendlerowa

She was one of the main Polish heroes during the II World War. This remarkable woman defied the Nazis regime, and saved over 2,500 Jewish children by smuggling them out of the Warsaw Ghetto.

She was a health worker, and she sneaked the children out between 1942 and 1943 to safe hiding places and found non-Jewish families to adopt them. She provided them with false identity documents and saved them from the Holocaust.

3) Wanda Rutkiewicz

She was a Polish climber born in 1943. She was the first woman to successfully climb summit K2. She was the first Pole, and also the first European woman, to reach the summit of Mount Everest

4) Wisława Szymborska

She was born in 1923, she won the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1996. Many people consider her as the "Mozart of Poetry".

Do you know any other Polish women that you would include in this list?
